

Step 2: Extend an invitation to the potential visitor and inform Carrie (jewett2@usf.edu). In consultation with you and the visitor, Carrie will initiate paperwork for a J-1 visa.

Step 3: Make sure that the visitor has a local residential address prior to his/her arrival to the U.S.

- a. The following hotels provide special USF rates if visitors need to book a hotel room upon their arrival: The Fairfield Inn and Suites Tampa North, Residence Inn Tampa North/I-75 Fletcher, and SpringHill Suites Tampa North/I-75 Tampa Palms
- b. Some past visitors have lived in the following housing complexes: The Grand Reserve, Camden Live Oaks, and Monticello of 42nd Street

Step 4: Once the visitor arrives, help him/her to settle in.

- a. Contact Shaine Blanco (sablanca@usf.edu) to submit the Resource Form (keys, computer access, etc.). a J-1 visa:

-
- a. Invitation letter from the host faculty member
 - b. CV
 - c. DS2019 application
 - d. A copy of Passport/s
 - e. Proof of health insurance
 - f. Financial verification in English

Step 2: On the day of arrival, a visitor needs to:

- a. Report to the International Services Office to provide your residence address during your stay in the U.S.
- b. Receive a USF ID Card at the Marshall Center.

This message will be posted on the department website. Further information is also available at <http://global.usf.edu/is/scholars.php>.

I hope this information sheet will help you.

Sincerely,

Toru Shimizu, Ph.D.
Professor