

Rates of HIV, tuberculosis, sexually transmitted diseases, hepatitis B, and hepatitis C are high among drug u as compared with nondrug usees infectious diseases, if not identi ed and treated, can pose a major health threat to both the individual with the disease and the community at large. e National Survey of Substance Al Treatment Services (N-SSATS) is a survey of all known substance abuse treatment facilities in the United Statement Services (N-SSATS) is a survey of all known substance abuse treatment facilities in the United Statement Services (N-SSATS) is a survey of all known substance abuse treatment facilities in the United Statement Services (N-SSATS) is a survey of all known substance abuse treatment facilities in the United Statement Services (N-SSATS) is a survey of all known substance abuse treatment facilities in the United Statement Services (N-SSATS) is a survey of all known substance abuse treatment facilities in the United Statement Services (N-SSATS) is a survey of all known substance abuse treatment facilities in the United Statement Services (N-SSATS) is a survey of all known substance abuse treatment facilities in the United Statement Services (N-SSATS) is a survey of all known substance abuse treatment facilities in the United Statement Services (N-SSATS) is a survey of all known substance abuse treatment facilities in the United Statement Services (N-SSATS) is a survey of Statement Service (N-SSATS) is a survey of Statement Servi